

Article 1. GENERAL CONDITIONS

- 1.1 Unless otherwise agreed, the relation between the parties is governed by the Dutch Forwarding Conditions<sup>1</sup>, including the Arbitration Clause. The most recent version of the Dutch Forwarding Conditions at the moment at which the acts/activities are performed, is applicable.
- 1.2 The following annexes form part of this agreement:
  - annex a) The Dutch Forwarding Conditions.
  - annex b) The 'information and documents required' checklist.
  - annex c) Additional indemnity use additional declaration in the customs declaration.
- 1.3 Unless otherwise agreed, the Direct Representative shall, if this serves the interests of the Principal, on the basis of the information known to the Direct Representative, be present at the taking of samples and the examination of the goods.<sup>2</sup>
- 1.4 The Direct Representative is entitled to refuse to perform acts and activities ensuing from this agreement/authorisation, providing he/it communicates this as soon as possible.

Article 2. OBLIGATIONS OF THE PARTIES

- 2.1 The Principal is obliged to provide the Direct Representative with all required records, information and data necessary for the execution of this agreement (also for each individual shipment/transaction), which may be required on the basis of the applicable rules and regulations and the present agreement.
- 2.2 In order to submit a correct customs declaration the Direct Representative must require from the Principal the required records, information and data, the relevance of which must be reasonably known to him/it.
- 2.3 The Direct Representative will make such declarations on the basis of the above data.

Article 3. PROVISION OF SECURITY / PAYMENT OF DUTIES AND TAXES

- 3.1 Unless otherwise agreed, use will be made of the facilities of the Direct Representative in order to provide security and ensure payment of duties, other charges and taxes to the Customs Authorities.
- 3.2 Unless otherwise agreed, the Principal agrees to reimbursement of duties, levies and taxes from the Tax Authorities / Customs directly to the bank account of the Direct Representative.

Article 4. OBLIGATION TO KEEP RECORDS

- 4.1 On the basis of the license to submit an electronic declaration to the Customs Authorities issued to him/it, the Direct Representative is obliged to keep records and keep the (original) documents and records pertaining to each declaration. The Principal is obliged to keep a copy of the documents and records provided by him/it for the same period of time.<sup>3</sup>
- 4.2 Subject to Article 4.1, the Principal is under a statutory obligation to keep all data relating to the declaration, the records and other data in connection with the transaction on file insofar as these pertain to the declaration.<sup>3</sup>

<sup>2</sup> It is advisable that the parties examine whether entering into further agreements is desirable in connection with the nature of the products, and so on.

<sup>3</sup> To be kept for a period of 7 years from the date at which customs control was completed.

Article 5. TERMINATION/REVOCAION OF THE AGREEMENT/AUTHORISATION

- 5.1 Cancellation/revocation will be effected by registered letter or through mutually recognised electronic messaging.
- 5.2 The provisions under the agreement/authorisation continue to apply also after cancellation/revocation, where relevant in connection with fulfilment of obligations imposed in the name of government.
- 5.3 The Direct Representative is entitled to keep the present authorisation also after revocation for the purposes of possible controls in the name of the government.

ANNEX B

CHECKLIST: DIRECT REPRESENTATION INFORMATION AND DOCUMENTS REQUIRED

The Principal shall supply the Direct Representative with the required records, information and data correctly and timely (prior to the moment at which a declaration is submitted). The checklist below has been composed to indicate what information and documents must be made available in general to the Direct Representative. If the declaration has been made and the Principal possesses records, information and data other than those supplied or listed in the declaration, he/it shall inform the Forwarding Company of this as soon as possible.

➤ GENERAL

- A recent excerpt of the entry of the company in the Trade Register (registration of the company and the signature authority)
- Name, address, place of residence of the Importer / Addressee and its VAT-Id no<sup>4</sup>

➤ DOCUMENTS AND RECORDS REQUIRED

- Invoice / statement of value
- (copy of) the Transport Document (e.g. B/L or CMR)
- Certificates of Origin/Provenance (depending on legislation)
- Other certificates (depending on legislation, such as health certificates)
- (copy of) Licenses (depending on legislation, such as import licenses, customs procedures with an economic impact license, particular destinations, exemption of customs import duties and/or other import taxes)

The Direct Representative is entitled to request the Principal to supply the following records:

- Packing list(s)
- Product specifications
- A copy of the contract of sale

➤ DATA REQUIRED FOR THE PURPOSE OF SUBMITTING A DECLARATION

The following information and data can be required from the Principal:

In relation to the shipment:

- Delivery terms (Incoterms 2010)
- Container number
- Mode of transport at the border and Inland mode of transport
- Country of dispatch/export and Country of origin
- Location of the goods
- Binding Tariff Information or Binding Origin Information, where present
- Description(s) of the goods and/or Commodity code
- Packaging unit, packages
- Marks and numbers
- Gross mass and Net mass (for each Commodity code)

For the purpose of determining the customs value I (based on the transaction value)

- Costs of delivery to the point of entry, taking into account transport, costs of loading and handling and related to transport and insurance
- Costs of delivery subsequent to arrival in the EU (point of entry)
- Charges for construction, erection, assembly, maintenance or technical assistance, undertaken after importation
- Other charges included in the price (interest, duplication fees, buyer's commissions, storage costs incurred in the EU and costs of safekeeping, quota costs and 'sales' tax)
- Customs duties and taxes payable in the Community upon importation/sale in the EU, already included in the price (such as DDP)

For the Purpose of determining the customs value II (based on the transaction value)

The following information, where applicable, must be disclosed to the Direct Representative, if:

- there is no contract of sale relating to 'goods sold for export to the customs territory of the EU'

<sup>4</sup> If that person/entity is not the principal as well.

- several sales have taken place indicating that the goods are destined for the EU
- the seller receives part of the proceeds from a subsequent sale
- the seller and the buyer are in any way related (subsidiary, shareholdings, and so on)
- invoice inspection has taken place (date and outcome)
- there are discounts as to price, which are certain at the moment of importation
- the following costs are for the account of the buyer, but are not included in the purchase price
  - commissions (with the exception of buyer's commissions)
  - brokerage fee
  - containers and packing
- goods and services supplied by the buyer are free of charge or at reduced cost for use in connection with the production and sale of the imported goods
- the buyer has to pay royalties and licensing fees, either directly or indirectly, as a condition of the sale
- the sale is subject to an arrangement by which part of the proceeds of the subsequent resale, disposal or use of the imported goods either directly or indirectly is for the benefit of the seller

➤ OTHER INFORMATION

If the Principal already possesses information of relevance or of possible relevance to the declaration, the Direct Representative must be informed of this. Examples are:

- Import and Export Regulations, special import rules (the Dutch Arms and Ammunition Act, the Dutch Opium Act, and so on, anti-dumping duties, compensatory duties, and so on)

Although this list has been carefully composed, the above description is not to be viewed as an exhaustive listing

Annexe C

Additional indemnity use additional declaration in the customs declaration

The undersigned, represented by the Direct Representative hereby referred to as "the Principal," solemnly declares that all goods imported and/or exported by the Principal, or on its behalf, as part of the services rendered, are entirely at the Principal's expense. The Principal ensures that such goods are in full compliance with all pertinent laws and regulations applicable at the time of import or export.

The Principal further declares that, to the best of its knowledge, no additional regulations apply, and no special licenses are required to import and export these goods. Should this situation change, the Principal is obligated and undertakes to promptly inform Direct Representative of any new or modified regulations or license requirements that may apply.

Consequently, the Principal expressly authorises Direct Representative, or any designated service provider, to apply any necessary exemption codes in their declarations to customs authorities. Unless the Principal provides alternative instructions to Direct Representative in a timely manner, supported by requisite (signed) documents and information.

The Principal affirms that all information provided herein and in any attachments hereto is accurate and legally binding upon the Principal. The Principal agrees to accept all responsibilities associated with the services rendered and/or customs declarations made by Direct Representative.

This agreement remains in effect for a period of 24 months from the date of issuance and covers all items listed on the commercial invoice or valuation. The Principal commits to promptly inform the Direct Representative of any circumstances that might invalidate, modify, or otherwise impact this declaration, including changes in the responsibilities delineated herein. Under no circumstances shall the Direct Representative be held liable for any failures on the part of the Principal to provide accurate documentation or information or for any customs or other claims and costs arising from the Principal's failure to timely inform the Direct Representative .

Please be advised that the list provided herein is not exhaustive and may be subject to expansion with the introduction of new codes as necessitated by regulatory changes or operational requirements. The principal hereby authorizes the application of Codebook 380 in its current form and consents to its future amendments, including the addition of new codes. This authorization is inclusive of and not limited to any subsequent iterations or updates that may be incorporated into the codebook, ensuring ongoing compliance with the latest standards and regulations.
